

Don Miguel Lanz

Characteristics

Miguel is not only the aging head of the family, but also a man who turned nothing into a fortune; sometimes, he tends to operate his family as if it was his business enterprise. He is very strong-minded, stubborn and he doesn't appreciate being resisted. Ever since his wife died, he feels something has been missing in his life.

The Past

- Originally, Miguel had two sons - twins. However, he could not afford to support both children, so he put one in an orphanage and decided to raise only the other one (Roberto).
- Camiliáno Pereira (Helena's husband) and Radquez Hernández were his business partners. Together with Radquez, they devised a plan to become unbelievably rich. In this plan, Camiliáno was unknowingly playing the role of a scapegoat and he ended up spending a better part of his life in prison. It was through a major fraud Miguel and Radquez made their fortune. They are trying to keep everything secret.
- Miguel is more fond of his dead wife Sofia than his weak son Rather than his weak son Roberto.
- When Miguel became older, he wanted to atone for his many sins. It was then that he started employing members of the Pereira family in his business. Natália Pereira proved to be a very good accountant.
- Sofia Lanz had a baby out of wedlock, by Juan Pereira. Don Miguel wanted the baby to cause Sofia and Roberto's marriage to fall apart. It would destroy Roberto, and Sofia would certainly remain a divorcee with no resources. But he was too fond of Sofia to let this happen. That is why Don Miguel put this illegitimate child into an orphanage. They told Roberto the child died shortly after birth.
- Don Miguel believes that Juan Pereira took the baby out of the orphanage and raised him as his own. Ramirez Pereira is this child!
- Fifteen years ago, Sofia Lanz was in a serious car accident. Natalia Pereira was in the car with her and Miguel thinks the accident occurred because the two had started fighting because of Juan and the baby. Sofia died in the crash; Natalia has been comatose ever since.

Relationships

- Miguel preferred Sofia, his daughter-in-law, to his son Roberto. In his opinion, Roberto is a weakling. Miguel cannot imagine Roberto running the family business one day.
- And Olympia? She is a mere gold-digger, that's what she is! Miguel hates her.
- However, he loves his grandchildren, especially Rosalinda - he tends to spoil her a bit. There's nothing he wouldn't do for her.

- He hates the entire Pereira family and he despises Juan who seduced poor Sofia the most. It is Juan who is to blame for her death, because it was him Sofia and Natalia were fighting about.
- Miguel feels guilty about Helena Pereira because of the fraud they committed and used her husband as a scapegoat.
- Lorenzo is a nice guy; one day, he's going to be a good chamberlain.
- Hernán Hernández is the future head of the big enterprise. His marriage to Rosalinda is vital for the well-being of the Lanz family. Someone has to keep an eye on these young silly fools.

Roberto Lanz

Characteristics

If someone was trying to describe Roberto, they would say Roberto is kind. Very kind. Roberto is nice, warm and has some understanding for everyone. His behavior is naive and he is very susceptible to influence, something everybody knows about him.

The Past

- If luck had been on Roberto's side, he would have had one child more in his life today. Today, the baby would be perhaps a year older than Rosalinda. However, the baby boy died shortly after birth.
- Sofia was killed in a tragic car accident fifteen years ago, and ever since then, Roberto has been taking anti-depressants.
- She was driving with her friend, Natália Pereira. Since the accident, Natália has been in a coma.
- Roberto keeps fighting with his father constantly because of Olympia; Roberto adores her and so he spoils her with expensive presents. He is unable to say no to her. A week ago, he bought her a beautiful car, brand new! It makes Roberto happy when Olympia is happy.
- However, Roberto has been feeling watched or followed recently. He has nightmares. Sometimes even anxiety attacks!

Relationships

- Roberto loves his wife Olympia.
- He cares even more about his children, Rosalinda and Carlos. Even though he may have spoiled them a bit, he loves them very much. They grew up without a mother, only with Olympia, which couldn't have been easy. Roberto is upset that his children do not get along well with Olympia.
- His father, Don Miguel, is strict but just. Roberto respects him.
- Adriana Salazar is Olympia's best friend. She hangs around the Lanz residence a lot. She is rich and fairly fun.
- Hernán Hernández is a rich young guy. Roberto is not too fond of him. He would like Rosalinda to marry someone for love. This marriage is a child of reason, not love. Hernán's father, Radquez Hernández, is a long-term business partner of Miguel's and Miguel has already decided about the marriage.
- Lorenzo Lorenz is a young guy who took up the chamberlain position at Lanz residence. The former chamberlain quit his job and fled the city in a suspicious hurry. Lorenzo showed up just in time and with great recommendations, so Roberto hired him.

Jorge Lanz

Characteristics

In this moment, Roberto leaves and it is up to you to play the role of the evil twin, Jorge Lanz. Jorge is the very opposite of Roberto. He is a sinister genius of evil who wants to get the family in as much trouble and conflict as possible. Jorge hates the family, especially his brother Roberto who has always had everything served on a silver platter, unlike Jorge. But Jorge is smart and ambitious, power-hungry, assertive, decisive and super-evil. Therefore, you have to completely reverse Roberto's personality.

The Past

- Jorge is Roberto's twin his father decided to put in an orphanage. He grew up in that orphanage and he swore vengeance on both Lanz family and Pereira family.
- Jorge studied the art of vengeance with a Japanese master. Vengeance became the meaning of his life.
- Twenty years ago, he founded a branch under Roberto's name within the Lanz corporation. It is a secret facility making drugs Jorge uses to destroy lives of thousands of people.
- However, Natália Pereira, the accountant Miguel hired, discovered the whole drug deal. Jorge staged a car crash in which Roberto's wife Sofia died and Natália Pereira fell into coma.
- Jorge has been coming to the Lanz residence for a long time; he became familiar with all the inhabitants. However, he despises every single one of them and wants them to suffer.
- He knows Lorenzo Lorenz is a woman dressed as a man. He uses this particular piece of information only when he needs to bring Lorenzo in line. It is always handy to have some dirt you can blackmail people with.
- Not so long ago, Jorge pushed Don Miguel down the stairs. Unfortunately, the old man survived.
- Jorge managed to defeat Roberto and hid him, shot, in a place known only to himself. Now, Jorge poses as Roberto.

Relationships

- Jorge hates everybody.

Olympia Lanz

Characteristics

The second wife of Roberto Lanz and stepmother to Rosalinda and Carlos. She married her older husband only because of his money and she has him completely wrapped around her finger. She secretly hates her stepchildren. She hides her evil self behind pretense and she does it all because of money. She hopes that when Miguel dies, she will gain control over the entire family and their entire property.

The Past

- She has plenty of lovers, but she has been seeing Hernán, Rosalinda's boyfriend, for some time now.
- Olympia has just become pregnant, but she doesn't know it yet.
- She has been splashing her husband's money about and she lets him buy her expensive presents. A week ago, she bought a cool expensive car.

Relationships

- She hates Don Miguel.
- She treats her husband Roberto like a puppet. He is a wimp and he is not able to say no to her.
- Olympia is only playing with Hernán for fun. There is no great love story behind their encounters.
- However, Olympia finds the new chamberlain Lorenzo Lorenz very attractive. If an opportunity arises, she would like to take him somewhere aside and make a few dirty proposals.
- Rosalinda and Carlos, Roberto's children from his first marriage, are a necessary evil that came along with all the money.
- Adriana Salazar is Olympia's best friend. They understand each other very well.

Rosalinda Lanz

Characteristics

Rosalinda is young, beautiful and rich. She values people who are rich and stylish. We wouldn't say that she is plain stupid. Only her pride and self-confidence are so big that she never admits there is something she doesn't know or that she might do wrongly. She compensates this by the amount of talking she does. However, that is only the mask she wears in public; her real self is very kind and nice, just like her father's. She believes in love at the first sight.

The Past

- Rosalinda's mother Sofia died in a car crash fifteen years ago. She was driving together with Natália Pereira who has been in a coma ever since.
- Hernán proposed to her and she agreed to marry him. Grandfather would have wished so. Moreover, Hernán has always been nothing but very nice and attentive. However, Rosalinda has been having some doubts about their relationship recently. Something is telling her that it is not the true romance she knows from stories.

Relationships

- She feels she doesn't really love Hernán. But what does she know about true love? She is still with him only because of the inertia of the relationship. Fortunately, the wedding is still far away in the future. Maybe they will have found the way back to each other by then.
- She saw Lorenzo Lorenz, the new chamberlain, for the first time. He is very handsome.
- Adriana is her stepmother's friend. She is fun. She keeps herself surrounded with younger men.
- Rosalinda openly hates her stepmother Olympia. She never misses an opportunity to say something harsh to her.
- Grandfather Miguel is the biggest lovebug of the family to Rosalinda, she adores him. He may be strict sometimes, but he is always just.
- Rosalinda also loves her father Roberto. He is the kindest person in the whole world. She likes to go to him for advice and comfort when necessary.
- She knows the Pereira family, but she doesn't see them much. Grandpa Miguel hates their guts.

Carlos Lanz

Characteristics

Carlos is the Roberto Lanz's oldest son and he is expected to become the director and owner of the family business one day. However, this certainty caused he has never had to do anything or make any effort. His father has been spoiling him, fulfilling his every wish and whim. His grandfather put into Carlos' head how extraordinary he is. Carlos is fairly smart, very strong-minded and ambitious. He is not used to losing or backing down.

If he doesn't consider someone interesting, he treats them as a piece of garbage. Carlos has plenty of experience with women, but none of his relationships has ever been serious.

The Past

- Carlos' mother Sofia died in a car crash fifteen years ago. She was driving together with Natália Pereira who has been in a coma ever since.

Relationships

- Carlos hangs out with José Armando Medina a lot. They are best friends.
- Valentina may be ugly as sin, but she is the kindest person. Carlos likes her.
- He would have probably been friends with Ramirez Pereira, if Ramirez wasn't seeing Adriana whom Carlos is pining for.
- Carlos finds Adriana very attractive. She is not that much older than him. He might have a shot with her.
- Carlos has good and warm relationship with his father and sister.
- He openly hates her stepmother Olympia. After all, she's not too keen on him either.
- Grandfather Miguel may be strict sometimes, but he is always just. Miguel hates the Pereiras, but Carlos doesn't mind any of that. He has his own judgment.
- Carlos loves her father Roberto. He is the kindest person in the whole world.
- Carlos finds Hernán fairly nice. Furthermore, his marriage to Rosalinda will unite two richest corporations in the country, and everyone will become filthy rich because of it.

Lorenzo Lorenz

Characteristics

In reality, Lorenzo Lorenz is the daughter of Juan Pereira and Sofia Lanz's forbidden romance who was put in an orphanage. She is a very smart girl and her goal is to take vengeance on both families. She works for the Lanz family dressed as a man and uses the name Lorenzo Lorenz. She is evil but she knows vengeance is a dish best served cold; that is why she works on the destruction of the family with slow efficiency. She manipulates relationships of everyone around her and she doesn't hesitate to spread "innocuous" rumors about others. She has never known true love.

The Past

- In reality, Lorenzo Lorenz is a woman - Sofia Pereira (after her parents).
- Daughter of Juan Pereira and Sofia Lanz.
- She works as a chamberlain at the Lanz family; she made the former chamberlain quit his job and leave the town using threats and blackmail. She acquired a fake letter of recommendation and convinced Roberto to hire her.
- She put up a fake ad on a dating site. She hopes Valentina Pereira will swallow the bait and leave the house.
- Sofia looks very much alike her sister Valentina. Only Sofia is more beautiful. When she doesn't pretend to be a man, that is.

Relationships

- Roberto Lanz was the one who hired her. He is a wimp who only manipulates everyone.
- Don Miguel is one not to be toyed with. Lorenzo walks on eggshells around him. She will try to learn more about how Miguel was involved in her placement in the orphanage.
- She also has to discover what happened to her mother Sofia Lanz.
- Olympia is clearly the future head of the family; she is evil and hostile and she has her eye on Lorenzo. Maybe, this could be used to Sofia's advantage.
- Carlos is a wimp, just like his father.
- Juan Pereira - Lorenzo's father - will feel the worst of Sofia's vengeance.
- For reasons unfathomable to Sofia, Lorenzo is a chick magnet. Of course Lorenzo strictly refuses all of them!
- However, Lorenzo does feel attracted to Hernán. But nothing can stand in her way to vengeance.

Helena Pereira

Characteristics

Helena Pereira is a sad old widow. She is bitter, evil and toxic. She is the oldest member of the Pereira family. Her word has great value and she remembers a lot. She adores her grandchildren. She doesn't believe in romantic love. She hates being poor now. Family always comes first.

The Past

- She was the wife of Camiliáno Pereira whom she married for his money.
- Camiliáno worked together with Miguel Lanz and Radquez Hernandez, but while these two made great fortune, Camiliáno became a scapegoat of their plan and he lost all his property while in prison.
- He has a son Juan, who was married to Natália Pereira (née Medina).
- Helena knows about her son Juan's affair with Roberto Lanz's ex-wife Sofia Lanz. A child was born out of this relationship. And Helena Pereira is positive this child is Rosalinda Lanz!
- Natália worked for Don Miguel as an accountant.
- Fifteen years ago, Natália and Sofia Lanz were driving together and had a car accident. Sofia died in the crash and Natália suffered a severe head injury. Ever since then, Natália has been in a coma. Sofia Lanz, who was driving, caused the crash.

Relationships

- She hates the Lanz family. They are to blame for her Camiliáno going to prison, her family becoming poor as well as for the car crash. Her grandchildren lost their mother because of the Lanz family. Helena never misses an opportunity to say something mean about the Lanzas and to spread rumors about them. She wishes their entire family vanished from the face of the Earth. But she will be content if she or nobody from her family doesn't have to see the Lanzas.
- She loves her son Juan but he doesn't bring home as much money as he should. He has to be reminded frequently that money doesn't grow on trees.
- She hates all the Hernandez family almost as much as she hates the Lanz family.
- She adores her immediate family. Helena is especially fond of her kind granddaughter Valentina.
- She merely tolerates Maria Medina and her son José Armando in her house. She is not too big on their living there. They could at least add a little more money to the family budget. To think that Helena has to support her family from her meager retirement!
- Helena considers Adriana Salazar a pompous bimbo.
- Helena spoils her grandchildren in any way she can.

Juan Pereira

Characteristics

A former womanizer, now almost a widower and the head of the Pereira family. He works in a shoe shop. He struggles to make ends meet in any way he can. However, he still hasn't lost his sparkle. He is not satisfied with his current way of life and he is determined to change it. He is stubborn and relentless. Juan grew up in poverty, so he dwells on money very much.

The Past

- Juan's parents are Helena Pereira and the late Camiliáno Pereira.
- His father Camiliáno worked together with Miguel Lanz and Radquez Hernández. But while Miguel and Radquez gained a fortune, Camiliáno was sentenced for fraud and lost all his property during his prison time.
- Juan is married to Natália and the couple has two children, Valentina and Ramirez.
- Natália worked for Don Miguel as an accountant.
- Juan used to be quite a womanizer. Shortly after his wedding, Juan had a passionate affair with Sofia Lanz, the deceased wife of Roberto Lanz. Juan knows his wife had a baby with Juan. But he doesn't know, what happened with the baby. When Sofia got pregnant, she stopped seeing him. Judging by the age, Rosalinda Lanz could be Juan's daughter.
- Juan's mother Helena knows about the affair.
- Fifteen years ago, Natália and Sofia Lanz were driving together and had a car accident. Sofia died in the crash and Natália suffered a severe head injury. Ever since then, Natália has been in a coma.
- Maria Medina, Natália's sister, helped Juan out a lot after the accident. She stays with the Pereira family, along with her son José Armando.
- Juan's money has been getting lost for some time now. Juan is quite certain that José Armando is stealing them, but he hasn't caught him red-handed.

Relationships

- Juan dislikes the entire Lanz family.
- He respects his mother Helena. However, it is not easy to love her and they get into each other's hair quite frequently.
- Juan loves both his children. Valentina is ugly but kind, and Ramirez took after him in many things. Ramirez started bringing some nice money home, but Juan doesn't have a clue where he gets them. Despite that, he is still proud of him and shows it. However, Juan would not bear if Ramirez was making a living doing something that would soil the family name!
- Juan loved his wife Natália, even though he wasn't always the perfect faithful husband. After he broke up with Sofia, he and Natália had the most beautiful time of their lives.
- Maria reminds Juan of Natália in many ways. Juan didn't think he would be able to fall in love ever again. But how else can he describe the feeling he gets when he looks at Maria?

Maria Medina

Characteristics

Maria suffered a lot of bad things in her time and she became disappointed with life. She finally managed to fall in love and the man even loves her back; however, their love is forbidden and Maria's conscience keeps stabbing at her. She is a pessimist. Everything that can go wrong usually does. Life doesn't treat anyone kindly. One of the bright things of her life is her son. And her pills. She is addicted to them, although she denies it.

The Past

- A long time ago, Maria had a passionate affair with Radquez Hernández. But Radquez ended it shortly after she gave birth to fraternal twins. After the break-up, the children were separated from each other. She kept José Armando and Radquez kept Hernán.
- Radquez Hernández sends her money; without it, she couldn't afford her pills. However, Radquez has one condition: Maria must not tell the truth to either Hernán or José Armando. Maria cannot imagine her life without the pills, so she keeps her mouth shut.
- Maria has a sister, Natália, Juan's wife.
- Fifteen years ago, her sister and Sofia Lanz were driving together and got in a tragic car crash. Sofia was driving and she died in the crash. Since the accident, Natália has been in a coma.
- Juan Pereira, Natália's husband, was badly shaken after the accident. Maria helped him get back on his feet and she has been staying with the Pereira family ever since. This is convenient for her as she wouldn't be able to afford to maintain a house of her own.
- Maria has been taking her pills for quite a long time now. She is way beyond the dosage her doctor prescribed. She gets so upset without the pills. Coincidentally, she buys her pills from Hernán.
- The amount of pills she takes got beyond what Radquez's money could buy a long time ago, so she takes some money from Juan from time to time.

Relationships

- She hates the Pereira family because of the accident.
- Hernán Hernández is her son. But he doesn't know it. Hernán sells pills to Maria.
- She was always very fond of her sister Natália.
- She loves her son José Armando very much and she wants what is best for him. Unfortunately, he is very stubborn and doesn't understand what is best for him. He thinks he's got what it takes to be an actor.
- Maria dislikes Helena Pereira. But she must not get to hostile with her because Juan clings to her.
- Maria has always found Juan very attractive. And during recent years, she fell in love with him. However, he is still married to her sister Natália, who is in a coma.
- Maria raised Valentina and Ramirez as her own children and she cares about them very much.

Valentina Pereira

Characteristics

Bespectacled and ugly, but with a beautiful soul. Valentina is always so kind to everyone. She supports everybody in their dreams. She knows she is ugly and it torments her. But not to the extent that would make her lose her optimism. She never lets the sneers and sniggers of others get to her.

The Past

- Natália Pereira, Valentina's mother, was in a tragic car accident fifteen years ago and she has been in a coma since then. Valentina's aunt Maria Medina, Natália's sister, has been taking care of Valentina, her brother Ramirez and their cousin José Armando ever since.
- Her father Juan and grandma Helena hate the Lanz family.
- But Valentina is good friends with Carlos Lanz. Grandma Helena mustn't know about this, because for some reason, she hates the guts of every Lanz family member. Valentina is in love with Carlos, but he doesn't know it. He would never date anyone like Valentina.
- She knows José Armando and Carlos are best friends. But no one in the family talks about it, because grandma Helen would get upset and angry.

Relationships

- Valentina is in love with Carlos Lanz.
- She is very fond of her brother Ramirez and their cousin José Armando; they all grew up together.
- Valentina often goes to the hospital to see her mother. She reads to her and combs her hair. Valentina loves her mother very much.
- Her father Juan is a veritable Scrooge, but other than that, she likes him. He shouldn't be so centered on money.
- Valentina likes her grandmother Helena, even though she gets angry very often.
- Valentina doesn't like Aunt Maria very much. She may have raised her, but that doesn't make her Valentina's mother. Moreover, Valentina figured out that Maria has a problem with the pills. Valentina thinks Maria is addicted to them.
- Valentina finds Lorenzo Lorenz very attractive.
- She thinks Adriana Salazar rather full of herself. Despite that, Valentina is always nice to her. Anyone can become a better person.

Ramirez Pereira

Characteristics

Ramirez earns a living as a gigolo. Despite the nature of his job, he is a romantic and he is looking for the One True Love. He is very handsome and he is aware of it. He acts purposefully, but not proudly. He gets along well with most people. However, he got hot temper from his father. When someone upsets him, he doesn't hold back.

The Past

- Ramirez grew up in a poor family and his father Juan and grandma Helena were always complaining about the lack of money. That is why he decided to drop out of school and start making money.
- Ramirez is a professional escort. His boyish nice looks earn him a long list of clients. Adriana Salazar is one of his regulars.
- Ramirez has had many women in his life, but he has never found the true love.
- Natália Pereira, Ramirez's mother, was in a tragic car accident fifteen years ago and she has been in a coma since then. Ramirez's aunt Maria Medina, Natália's sister, has been taking care of Ramirez, his sister Valentina and their cousin José Armando ever since.
- Valentina is good friends with Carlos Lanz. Carlos Lanz is José Armando's best friend.
- His father Juan and grandma Helena hate the Lanz family.
- Ramirez saw aunt Maria stealing money from Juan's wallet, but he hasn't told anyone yet.

Relationships

- Adriana Salazar is a pompous rich bimbo. Ramirez dislikes her, but she is his best client. If he lost her, things could turn out badly. They slept together multiple times.
- Ramirez likes his ugly sister Valentina. Despite that, he can't help himself but take a jibe at her for her ugliness. He tells her no one will ever want her.
- Aunt Maria is like a mother to him. He goes to the hospital to visit his mother now and then, but fifteen years is a long time.
- Ramirez is glad to know his father Juan is proud of him making so much money. But he would rather not tell his father what does he get paid for. Juan is a terribly mean when it comes to money.
- Ramirez has always found Rosalinda Lanz attractive, but he hasn't seen her for a while.

José Armando Medina

Characteristics

Unsuccessful actor, Maria Medina's son. He doesn't know who his father is. Friendship is everything to him. He grew up in a poor family, so his pride and honesty are the most valuable things he has to offer. He hates being slandered or falsely accused. He knows best what's good for him. He has big plans.

The Past

- Fifteen years ago, after the accident with Natália Pereira, he and his mother moved in with the Pereira family.
- José Armando is good friends with Carlos Lanz. But for some reason, Helena Pereira disapproves of it. Although they live in one house, Helena and José Armando are not related. So he has no reason to listen to her.
- He is also very good friends with Valentina Pereira and Ramirez Pereira.
- José Armando doesn't know or need his father. He decided that he would cope without him in the world. Earlier, he hated his father for leaving his mother. But now, he couldn't care less.

Relationships

- José Armando's best friend is Carlos Lanz. They are more than brothers to each other.
- José Armando hates when Maria takes pills. It is clear enough to him that she is addicted to them.
- Valentina and Ramirez are like sister and brother to him. They grew up together.
- He views Juan as a father he has never met. He respect Juan.
- He has only seen Adriana a couple of times, always with Ramirez. He is not sure whether she remembers him or not. However, José finds her very beautiful and desirable.
- Helena is an unpleasant bitter old woman.

Hernán Hernández

Characteristics

Hernán is an arrogant but very successful and handsome man, in a serious relationship with Rosalinda. He comes from a rich family. He doesn't believe in romantic love. His father raised him to love only money.

The Past

- Hernán's father Radquez Hernández is Miguel Lanz's long-term business partner.
- It was Radquez who introduce Hernán to Rosalinda. Their marriage would mean a merger of two business imperia and gigantic improvement of fortune in both families.
- But Hernán does not love Rosalinda. His relationship to her is purely pragmatic.
- Hernán has been seeing Olympia Lanz, Rosalinda's stepmother, for some time now.
- Hernán's father gives him money for basic stuff, but if Hernán wants to afford something without his father's approval, he has to sell illegally acquired medicinal drugs.
- One of his customers is Maria Medina.

Relationships

- Radquez Hernández is Hernán's father. He is a terrible tyrant.
- Rosalinda Lanz is Hernán's future fiancé. She is a good friend to him, but there are no deeper feelings involved.
- Neither does Hernán love Olympia he's sleeping with. He only maintains this relationship out of boredom and lack of excitement.
- Maria Medina is one of his customers. He regularly supplies her with pills she's addicted to.
- Unfathomably, Hernán finds himself attracted to Lorenzo Lorenz. However, he doesn't admit to himself he could be gay. His father would get a heart attack out of something like that. Despite that, it is hard to resist this certain electric tension he feels, so he hangs out with Lorenzo and treats him as a good friend and confidante.

Adriana Salazar

Characteristics

Adriana is a beautiful, rich and spoiled little madam. She is used to getting what she wants. She doesn't want to pick and choose - she wants everything at once. She is not used to being refused or resisted.

The Past

- Adriana is hiring Ramirez Pereira as a professional escort.

Relationships

- She is best friends with Olympia Lanz.
- She finds Ramirez Pereira a good guy and she likes being seen with him.
- Adriana finds the new chamberlain Lorenzo Lorenz very attractive. Whenever she has an opportunity, she is eyeing him hungrily. If there's a chance, she will drag him into a dark corner and kiss him passionately. She wants him all for herself.
- She is also attracted to Carlos Lanz. Or to any other young man.
- She is on friendly terms with Rosalinda Lanz. But for Adriana, Rosalinda seems overly uptight. Adriana will have to teach her how to have some fun in life.

Natália Pereira

Characteristics

After fifteen years, Natália awakens from her coma. She can be reunited with her family, at last! She will do anything to protect them from the Lanz family or any other evil. She wants to catch up with the lost years. She will remind Juan of the moments of happiness their life blessed them with. She wants to follow up on these moments even though she knows it will be hard. She expects her family, especially Juan, to welcome her back cordially and lovingly.

The Past

- Her maiden name is Natália Medina.
- Natália and Juan have been through various ups and downs in their marriage, but the year before the accident was amazing. That is what Natália remembers the most.
- Miguel Lanz used to be business partners with Camilião Pereira, Helena's late husband, and Radquez Hernández. Shortly after, Camilião got sentenced to prison and the family lost everything.
- Despite Helena Pereira's disapproval, Natália took up an accounting job with the Lanz family. Right before the accident, Natália discovered terrible things in the company. She learned that Miguel Lanz and Radquez Hernández used Camilião Pereira as a scapegoat for their enormous fraud. They framed him and earned a fortune in the fraud.
- But she also discovered something even more horrific - a company within the Lanz corporation that is missing in the organizational structures. Natália only discovered it because she was tracking financial transactions. It is a large drug factory!
- Before she managed to tell anyone, the accident happened. But someone deliberately damaged the car - the brakes were cut. Sofia Lanz was in the car with her... and she didn't make it.
- Natália chooses to feign complete amnesia to protect herself and her family.

Relationships

- Maria Medina is her sister. They have always loved each other.
- Natália loves her husband Juan very much. She adores her children Ramirez and Valentina. She would do anything for them.
- Natália is afraid of Miguel Lanz. She thinks it was him who staged the car crash.