

You have the right to left the room before the shooting.
You can come back for the voting.

